Shri K. Sreenivasan, the Founder Trustee was born on 12th May 1917 in Karadibavi, Coimbatore. An alumnus of Madras and Manchester Universities, Shri Sreenivasan went on to do his research in textiles in the U.K. A visionary with his unique blend of technological and management expertise, was instrumental in the development of the South India Textile Research Association (SITRA).

For his outstanding contribution to the advancement of the textile industry and research, he was awarded the Padma Bhushan by the Govt. of India in 1969. As a writer, scholar, thinker, orator and poet he made unique contributions to sociological thinking through his books Productivity & Social Environment and Anatomy of Progress. He also wrote four novels, three in English and one in Tamil. A collection of his speeches have also been published under the title Growth and Development. His autobiography, "Climbing the Coconut Tree" was published by the Oxford University Press in 1980.

The Birth Centenary Celebration of Shri K. Sreenivasan on 22nd July 2017 was a grand success in paying tribute to him. His biography - A Life of Impact was launched and the Postal Department released a Special Cover of Shri K. Sreenivasan in this function.

Kasthuri Sreenivasan Culture Centre

After his retirement, Shri Sreenivasan established the Kasthuri Sreenivasan Trust in the year 1981 for the promotion of art and literature. The Culture Centre was opened on 29th August 1988 by the then President of India His Excellency Shri R. Venkataraman. The Culture Centre comprises of an Art Gallery, Textile Museum and a modern auditorium with a capacity of 196 seats. The gallery has a display of about 500 paintings and prints from all over the world. The Textile Museum has many antique textile machinery, models and drawings. It also has a display of antique sarees and other textile artifacts. With his interest and his international contacts, the founder trustee ensured that various textile items of historical and cultural interest were collected and displayed in the museum. The Culture Centre is open to public and no entrance fee is charged. So far, about 3 lakh people including many distinguished guests have visited the Art Gallery and Textile Museum.
